SUMMARY

Nestled in between two volcanoes, this eco lodge opens the doors to the astonishing Rio Celeste and the trails of the National Park Volcano “Tenorio”, being located at only 5 kms (about 3 Miles) from its entrance on the new access road to the park from Bijagua and 1 hour from the Liberia Airport, With a new road open the nearby the village of Bijagua has approximately 2,000 inhabitants and 3,000 more in the surrounding hamlets and is basically agriculture oriented. On a mountain top, this pioneer Eco lodge sits on a 3 hectares green area and 4 hectares of protected primary forest. Because neighboring properties also consist of protected areas, deep jungles surround the lodge with the national park Vulcan “Tenorio”. This lodge is located at 800 meters (2400 ft) and includes its own private reserve made of primary transitional rain-to-cloud forest.
