SUMMARY

Located in a quiet neighborhood of Jaco this house has a particular charm. It's one of the first build houses in this neighborhood and has a typically costarician style. 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms and a great living room opening to the terrace and having the swimming pool and garden as a view. A total of 165m2 living space on a 1000m2 lot with a swimming pool. The house is a good quality building and has great potential for a creative buyer that is looking for something different. The lot still has a lot of places to develop. You could add one or several small guesthouses and make the place a charming B&B. Walking distance from downtown Jaco but in
