SUMMARY

New Custom Retreat Suite, South Ojochal The property has a newly engraved road that provides 4WD access throughout the farm. The municipality maintains access to the road that provides easy access to the Costanera highway that is only 2 kilometers from the finca. The property boasts its beautiful and attractive cascading waterfalls. The water is abundant and easily accessible because of the farm has three year-round springs flowing within its borders. The first house has 2 bedrooms and a large front room that may be used for a leisure room or rental home and the second home has just completely constructed. The house has 2 larger bedrooms with bathroom along with the fascinating views of the valley. 10 acres are primary rainforest with the remaining area replanted with over 200 fruit trees. A large greenhouse provides a wonderful place to grow
